

4. TERMS AND CONDITIONS

1 OBJECT

The present specification of terms and conditions sets the requirements to the execution of the project "The urban miner" by the Spanish team.

2. GENERAL PROVISIONS

The installer is obliged to comply with the corresponding work regulations as well as law of prevention of occupational risks and articles into the General Ordinance of security force and hygiene at work and all those social rules in force or which may issue during the execution of works or projects.

Also, the installer must be in possession of the corresponding authorization, approval or training of the Provincial delegation of the competent Ministry for the approval of the work.

3. OPTIONAL CONDITIONS

Installation, or project works will be carried out in accordance with technical requirements which may appear on any of its chapters, also it does not exempt the omitted or erroneously described, the successful completion of the work details installer which are clearly indispensable to carry out the spirit and intent set forth in project or for use custom or requirement of the administration or company supplier of the service should run. The installer must observe legislation contemplated in the project, or otherwise enforceable by a body or competent entity.

In case of discrepancy between mandatory regulations will apply the criterion that establishes the competent Ministry except greater demands of regulations date back or expressed specifically in this project.

4 SCOPE OF THE PROJECT

The project covers verification and legalization of the facilities defined in their chapters, for the powers and devices.

5.-SAFETY AT WORK

The installer is obliged to comply with the conditions listed in the law on prevention of occupational risks and health at work and the General Safety Ordinance facilitating the necessary means of protection to staff and requiring its use.

You must also provide as was necessary for maintenance, under the proper conditions for security, machines, tools, and working equipment.

While operators working in circuits or electrical equipment use clothing without metal fittings and avoid the unnecessary use of metal objects, and must be that use of non-conductive material. Footwear must be insulated, without fittings or nails in the soles.

The installation staff is obliged to use all devices and personal protective equipment, tools and safety garments required to eliminate or reduce personal risks.

The contractor may require the installer at any time, before or after the initiation of the work, to submit the supporting documents of having formalized systems of Social security of all types.

6. SECURITY ISSUES

The installer will have an insurance policy to sufficiently protect it and to its employees and workers facing claims for damages, liability, etc., in which they may incur for the installer or to third parties, as a result of the execution of the works.

The installer must take maximum precautions in all operations and use of equipment to protect people, animals and things, from work hazards, being your account responsibilities resulting from such accidents.

7 ORGANIZATION AT WORK

The installer will order the work according to the installation program contained in the project and in accordance with the direction of work; and its implementation will be always following the indications of the Project Director, under cover of the following conditions:

7.1 Project data.

Be delivered to the installer a copy of the project, as well as many drawings or data needed to complete execution.

7.2. Reconsideration of the project.

Once that the installer is in possession of the project and before starting work, must be the layout of the project, under the supervision of team coordinators, that will deliver references and data necessary to fully secure your location.

7.3 Reception of the material.

The coordinators of equipment in accordance with the installer or technician will give timely approval of the material provided and confirm that he allowed a correct installation. Monitoring and conservation of the material provided will be the responsibility of the installer.

7.4. Organization.

The installer or technician will perform legal employer, accepting all liability as such, and being forced to pay wages and charges that legally are established and in general everything is how much legislation, decree or order on the subject before and during the execution of the work.

Within stipulated in the tender conditions, the Organization of the project, as well as the determination of the origin of the materials used, will be provided by the installer who shall be the responsibility of the security against accidents.

The Installer must, however, inform the coordinators of all plans of the same technical organization team, as well as the origin of materials and fill many orders give this in relation to extreme data.

7.5. Execution of the project.

The works will be implemented according to the project of the conditions contained in this statement of conditions.

The installer, unless written approval from the Director of the project, may not make any alteration or modification of any kind in relation to the project, both in the execution of the work and the technical conditions specified, without prejudice to that at each time can sort by that.

8. RECEIPT OF INSTALLATION

The reception of the installation will be object check that it complies with the requirements of the regulations and the specifications of the project, as well as perform a setting up correct and check the benefits and requirements of the rational use of energy, security, and quality that are required.

Once carried out final tests with satisfactory results to the Project Director, be the Act of reception of the installation extending the corresponding certificate of completion of works, signed by the Director of the same and giving terminated jobs.

9. RESPONSIBILITY FOR USE

Once the Final Certificate of work are extended by the same Director, responsibility for applications and the installation and maintenance elements associated with it and security, is transmitted entirely to property without prejudice to the contractual responsibilities that guarantee have been agreed and compel the company Installer.

The owner of the installation will be equally responsible for the regulatory maintenance operations are performed, as well as maintain the corresponding values within the limits required by the legislation in force.

MAY 2013